Nocturno

Invisible Stories

SYNOPSIS:

“Each costume has its story, this place opened many years ago, and here, there are millions of stories. On the day seemed as a simple sewing workshop, but at night people came here to play... play their memories, their secrets, their stories... Their fears”

NOCTURNO

The desire to seek other forms of expression, has lead the company to create a space that breaks the quotidian and provides the conditions for an experience that transcends. Reflecting on communication and modern man, we research about the distressing paradox of technological advance that alienates our heads and obscures our ability to discern and express. Nocturne is a challenge, an attempt to look us in the eye and talk, listen and share a moment of silence in our fast-paced lives, stop and ( not)think about us. A place that becomes guardian of secrets and desires. A place to rediscover our own history.

DEVELOPMENT OF THE PROPOSAL

Nocturno is an intimate piece for 9 people in which theater, music, sensorial language, sound installation and touches of magic, join together to find a poetic in a intervened space.

A tour that takes visitors into the game, an inner journey that confronts him with himself, with his history, and the collective memory that unites us all. Each one creates his journey through atmospheres that evoke yearned, dreamed or past situations, and that beyond the visual border, are received with all senses.

Inspired by the poetic space of Bachelard and techniques developed by groups like Teatro de los Sentidos, our quest is to create places that are in themselves the verses of a poem whose hero is everyone living the experience.

THE COMPANY

Café de las Artes Teatro is a company that creates and produces intimate and evocative performances arising from the fascination of its members to build imaginaries that break routines, and thus, find a deeper and more direct communication with the viewer.

Influenced by theater, circus, sensory language, objects, puppets, shadows , music... the members of the company research and seek their own path. A route that rotates between the fragile, the near, the seductive and what is not seen, but it feels and resonates.
